

Grown-Up

Written and interpreted by : Eyal Bor Carral

When we are little, we want to be older, we don't want the rules and schedules that the adults impose on us, of what we can or cannot do, have fun whenever we want.

When we grow up we want to be young again, because now we have too many things to worry about and we don't have enough free time to play and enjoy.

So how do we get the freedom to do what we want whenever we want to?

Grown-up is a juggling act of a young man on his first day of work. He waits, gets bored, starts playing with the balls in his briefcase, his jacket, his table. Will he get caught?

Duration: 10 minutes

Public: For the grown-ups and the younger ones (all public)

Technical needs:

- Stage of 6m wide x 4m length x 5m height minimum
- Travel with extra sized luggage (for the table) or provision of a light table with the following approximate dimensions: 65cm (wide), 110cm (long), 75cm (height). Example : <https://tinyurl.com/ycdszcqb>
- A regular sized chair (same color as table if possible)

Link to the Act: <https://youtu.be/QYEMAwD4BA8>

Link to Trailer: www.youtube.com/watch?v=eEbM5zEJ65M

